SMEC South Africa wins top research-based industry awards

May 25, 2018

SMEC South Africa walked away with three Diamond Arrow awards at the PMR.Africa annual awards function held in Johannesburg on 21 May, 2018. The winning certificates were awarded based on the results of the National Survey of Consulting Engineering Firms, a peer research-based method of determining the best companies in each category.

Through its annual awards, PMR.Africa seeks to acknowledge a company's vision, integrity, values, competence and empathy, all of which contribute to ethical and sustainable business practices. According to PMR.Africa the purpose of the awards is to enhance competitiveness both locally and internationally, to create excellence and set a benchmark in industry and to acknowledge staff for their role in contributing to a winning company.

SMEC South Africa was placed first overall in the following categories for companies with more than 400 employees:

- Civil Consulting Engineers
- Structural Consulting Engineers
- Combined Civil & Structural Consulting

Accepting the winning certificates on behalf of SMEC South Africa were, L – R: Bongani Mthombeni-Möller, Strategic Business Development Executive and Gauteng South Regional Manager; Kresen Manicum, KZN Regional Manager and Executive Board Member; and Andre van der Walt, Gauteng North Regional Manager and General Manager Energy and Resources Africa Division.
