Surbana Jurong acquires consultancies B+H and SAA

Date: 18 October 2018

In line with our global growth strategy we are pleased to celebrate the recent acquisition of Canadian-headquartered B+H and Singapore-headquartered SAA by our parent company Surbana Jurong.

Our global urban portfolio has grown significantly with these acquisitions, enabling the group to expand its service offerings in geographical markets such as North America and Singapore, and new sectors such as healthcare and hospitality.

Mr Hari Poologasundram, CEO SMEC and CEO International, Surbana Jurong, said, “We welcome B+H and SAA into the Surbana Jurong group. These acquisitions align with our global strategy to grow our urban operations and strengthen our capabilities so we can add greater value to our service offerings to clients and partners. Additionally, B+H and SAA have natural synergies with our broader business in terms of core values and competencies, and provide further entry and opportunities in healthcare, hospitality and education.”
