

Diversity & Inclusion Policy

Diversity and Inclusion Policy

Purpose	The policy sets out the framework by which SMEC actively manages and supports diversity and inclusion across the organisation.
Definitions and Abbreviations	Diversity: The collective mixture of differences and similarities that include, for example, individual and organisational characteristics, values, beliefs, experiences, backgrounds, preferences, and behaviours.
	Inclusion : Welcoming and embracing the strengths each person brings to the organisation Inclusion involves bringing together and harnessing the richness of ideas, backgrounds, an perspectives to create value.
	Diversity Attributes covered by this policy include, but are not limited to:
	- Gender
	- Indigenous Culture
	- LGBTIQ (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex, questioning)
	- Religious beliefs
	- Carer Status
	- People with physical or mental disabilities
	- Age
	- Race
	- Pregnancy
	- Marital Status
	- Political Opinion
	- National extraction
	- Social origin
Policy	SMEC is committed to developing and maintaining a workforce which respects the diversity of the clients we serve and the communities in which we operate, including indigenous communities.
	Our commitment to diversity and inclusion aligns with our values of diversity, teamwork and integrity and is reflected in our Code of Conduct.
	Wherever we operate we are focused on consistently meeting or exceeding our legal and regulatory obligations in relation to equal opportunity, diversity and inclusion, and will strive to be recognised externally as an organisation that exemplifies diversity in action.
	SMEC's Diversity and Inclusion Committee is responsible for setting the strategy to addres diversity in the organisation.
	The Diversity and Inclusion Committee has endorsed Divisional Action Plans, which each COO has committed to actioning in their division.
	SMEC employees are responsible for exhibiting behaviour in line with this policy, and for ensuring that no one is disadvantaged due to action or inaction.
	Throughout the employee lifecycle, SMEC is committed to ensuring equitable policies,

We do this through:
Leadership Commitment: Leaders believe in, advocate for and role model diversity equality and set clear expectations for others to follow.
Education, Training and Development: SMEC's learning and development strategies, policies and processes are aimed at building capability throughout the organisation.
Recruitment and Remuneration: Recruitment, promotion and remuneration policies, strategies and processes are equitable and designed to decrease bias.
Workplace Incidents: All employees are aware of their rights and obligations regarding discrimination, with the aim of eliminating harassment and discrimination and promoting an inclusive workplace culture.